

CYRIL AMARCHAND MANGALDAS

Be that as it may, our clients do not wish to enter into any conflict and believe in resolving disputes peacefully. Thus with a view to find an amicable resolution and without prejudice to any or all of their rights, our clients have decided to remove the letters IMA from the products and or its packaging. Further, we wish to confirm that all advertisements referring to IMA in association with their products and business will also be withdrawn.

In view of the aforesaid assurances, you are called upon to withdraw your notice and all the allegations and demands made therein. With this letter we believe the matter stands concluded and that your client will not agitate this issue any further.

Yours sincerely,
